COMMITTEE REPORTS

Wings and Wine with the 99s. October 23, 2005

Dima Deluise gave us an update. She reviewed the pertinent information on the flyer she passed out at the last meeting. She collected donations for the silent auction. She encouraged all members to attend this Aerospace Education Fundraiser.

AOPA EXPO November 3-5, 2005

Denise Goldberger gave us an update. 99s International will be at booth #415. Tradeshow committee chairs Susan Theurkauf and Vicki Anderson from California are running the booth. They have asked our group to assist them in staffing the booth. They would like us to promote the 99s, encourage new members and answer questions about flying in the local area. The hours are Thursday, Nov. 3 10 AM to 6PM, Friday Nov. 4 10AM to 6 PM, Saturday, Nov. 5 10 AM to 4PM. Stop by the booth when you first arrive to let Susan or Vicki know when you can volunteer. Attire is casual nice (prefer solid color clothing.) You must purchase a ticket to enter the exhibit hall and volunteer. $25 before Oct. 17 or $35 on site. Denise showed members a list of seminars available and gave them a general idea of the benefits of attending such a large aviation event in our own community. In addition Susan and Vicki will be hosting a 99s Breakfast Social Saturday, Nov. 5 8AM to 9:30Am at the Marriott Waterside Hotel Salon C. Cost $20. Call or E-mail Denise to RSVP. Our November Meeting will follow the breakfast.

HOLIDAY PARTY @ St. Petersburg Yacht Club December 10, 2005

RSVP to Barbara Sierchio. Turkey $20. Salmon $22.50 NY Strip Steak $25.

OLD BUSINESS

Chairman Mary Fletcher thanked all members who put together the flight planning seminar at our September Meeting.

She announced that our organization would only participate in the Albert Whitted Airfest on Saturday, Oct. 8 only due to lack of volunteers on Sunday.

NEW BUSINESS

99s International sent Mary Fletcher raffle tickets to sell. They are for a Spa Package. This is a fundraiser for the 99s and the drawing will be held July 8, 2006.

Marie Grein reminded members that the deadline for the Amelia Earhart Scholarship is December 1, 2005.

Marie Grein announced that next years Section Meeting will be April 28-30 in Fayetteville, NC.

Mary Fletcher will submit a report of Chapter Activities to the next Section Meeting.

Mary Fletcher asked for ideas for next years Chapter Meetings.

The following was discussed:

Barbara Yeninas will contact 99s member Carol Ann who flew around the world to give us a presentation.

Denise Goldberger will ask Denise Rosenberger about Air Marking for Sun 'N Fun again as we did in 2004. This meeting drew participants from all over Florida.

Dima Deluise suggested a field trip to Fantasy of Flight.

Denise Goldberger suggested a Fly-In to Jumbolair for brunch.

Meeting was adjourned by the Chairman at 12:50PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Denise Goldberger, Secretary
